JUDGES CHOICE

Division F – Flowers
Louisa County Master Gardeners Fair Committee

Judging Wednesday, July 26, 12:30 P.M.

The purpose of this flower show is for the education and enjoyment of all who view the show as well as the exhibitors.

This division is open to amateurs only. A professional is defined as one who earns their livelihood from their skills.

All entries accepted Wednesday, July 26th between 8:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m..

People from surrounding communities may send in entries early and pick up tag on entry day.

Flowers must be in on time. No late entries will be accepted.

Only one entry per person in each category. All entries are eligible in only one class.

One entry per person for each category and no more than 20 entries per household.

The exhibitor must be present to register entries or present contact information, in case of questions, If questions can not be answered, entry will be denied.

Best of Class is ribbon only for Best of Class and Best of Show awards, preference will be given to those entries that have (where indicated) the name/variety of the plant listed.

First Premium $2.00
Second Premium $1.50

Helpful Hints for Exhibitors

- List name/variety on entry tag where indicated
- Place specimens in clear uncolored clear glass containers where indicated.
- Remove any foliage that is going to be under water.
- Remove or trim outer petals and foliage that show insect or weather damage.
- Look for uniformity in size of bloom.
- Do not choose spent or faded flowers, instead choose fresh flowers.
- Use soft make-up brush to clean up debris on blooms or plants.
- Use supports that do not show for holding stems of large flowers like sunflowers in displays or arrangements.
- Do not allow mechanics of any kind, such as oasis, filler, frogs, etc. show in an arrangement but wedging material (such as clear plastic wrap) can be used to hold specimens upright.
- To allow the flowers to “condition”, cut and place immediately into water the evening before the show.

Design

Design in the form or shape of the arrangement. To qualify as being of acceptable design the composition must possess unity, scale, and accent. A good design which pleases the eye contains balance, harmony and rhythm. When choosing containers, the container should complement the flower design. Flower arranging is a serious art form. It should be enjoyed and bring much pleasure. The name of the plants should be included on the entry tag where indicated.

Marsha Graf, Margaret Bloomquist

All entries close July 26 at 11:00 A.M..

All entries in place by 12:30, July 26

Judging 8 A.M. Friday, July 28

Premiums – Blue $2.00 Red $1.50

Judges Choice - $3.50

The Supt. or Judges will reserve the right to rule out any entry that has taken a First Premium at Louisa County Fair or has not been completed since the last fair. Quilts and counted cross stitch items must be completed within the last 2 years and must be permanently dated with the completion date. This allows entries to be taken to State Fair one year and entered at Louisa the next year.

All entries must be the work of the exhibitor and must be completed within the last 2 years. One entry per person in each category.

The management will use diligence to insure the safety of articles after their arrival and placement, but in no case will they be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur.

All textiles, including quilts and rugs, will be judged on the following; General appearance, newness of design and material, suitability to occasion, individuality and neatness.

Quilt packets for the fair quilt are $8. Returned blocks for entry must have an entry tag. No entry fee for blocks.

Class 12 – Quilt Block Contest Entry

No entry fee. Entry tag must be on block.

Quilt blocks are for the Louisa County Fair Quilt Block Contest and packets were purchased since the previous fair and will be assembled into a quilt top to be returned the following year to be raffled off to raise money for improvements for Floral Hall.

The blocks submitted will be judged by the public and voted for with money. All blocks will be displayed and numbered and the public will place money in an envelope and put the number of the block they wish to vote for on the front of the envelope. The block receiving the most money will be the first place winner, then a second place and third place will be counted as well.

These blocks will be assembled into a quilt and available for raffle at the 2018 fair.
